- (2) Investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, other than material within the scope of subsection (j)(2) of the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a: Provided, however, that if any individual is denied any right, privilege, or benefit that he would otherwise be entitled by Federal law, or for which he would otherwise be eligible, as a result of the maintenance of such material, such material shall be provided to such individual, except to the extent that the disclosure of such material would reveal the identity of a source who furnished information to the Government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence, or, prior to the effective date of the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a, under an implied promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence;
- (3) Maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or other individuals pursuant to section 3056 of title 18 of the United States Code:
- (4) Required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records;
- (5) Investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment, military service, Federal contracts, or access to classified information, but only to the extent that the disclosures of such material would reveal the identity of a source who furnished information to the Government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence, or, prior to the effective date of the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a, under an implied promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence;
- (6) Test or examination material used solely to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in the Federal service, the disclosure of which would compromise the objectivity or fairness of the testing or examination process; or
- (7) Evaluation material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services, but only to the extent that the disclosure of such material be held in confidence, or, prior to the effective date of the Privacy Act, 5

- U.S.C. 552a, under an implied promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence.
- (b) Those designated systems of records which are exempt from the requirements of this part or any other requirements of the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a, will be indicated in the notice of designated systems of records published by the Board.
- (c) Nothing in this part will allow an individual access to any information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action or proceeding.

§1630.16 Fees.

- (a) Individuals will not be charged for:
- (1) The search and review of the record; and
- (2) Copies of ten (10) or fewer pages of a requested record.
- (b) Records of more than 10 pages will be photocopied for 15 cents a page. If the record is larger than  $8\frac{1}{2} \times 14$  inches, the fee will be the cost of reproducing the record through Government or commercial sources.
- (c) Fees must be paid in full before requested records are disclosed. Payment shall be by personal check or money order payable to the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board, and mailed or delivered to the record keeper or to the Privacy Act Officer, depending upon the nature of the request, at the address listed in §1630.4.
- (d) The Head, TSP Service Office or the Privacy Act Officer may waive the fee if:
- (1) The cost of collecting the fee exceeds the amount to be collected; or
- (2) The production of the copies at no charge is in the best interest of the Board.
- (e) A receipt will be furnished on request.
